Catarrh
IS a blood disease. Until the poison is expelled from the system, there can be no cure for this loathsome and dangerous malady. Therefore, the only effective treatment is a thorough course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla—the best of all blood purifiers. The sooner you begin the better; delay is dangerous.
"I was troubled with catarrh for over two years. I tried various remedies, and was treated by a number of physicians, but received no benefit until I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A few bottles of this medicine cured me of this troublesome complaint and completely restored my health."—Jesse M. Boggs, Holman's Mills, N. C.
"When Ayer's Sarsaparilla was recommended to me for catarrh, I was inclined to doubt its efficacy. Having tried so many remedies, with little benefit, I had no faith that anything would cure me. I became emaciated from loss of appetite and impaired digestion. I had nearly lost the sense of smell, and my system was badly deranged. I was about discouraged, when a friend urged me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and referred me to persons whom it had cured of catarrh. After taking half a dozen bottles of this medicine, I am convinced that the only sure way of treating this obstinate disease is through the blood."—Charles H. Maloney, 113 River st., Lowell, Mass.

Items Which Are of Particular Interest to Pennsylvanians.

IN THIS AND NEARBY COUNTIES.

Brief Mention of Matters Which Everybody Should Know About—A Week's Accidents and Crimes Accurately and Concisely Chronicled.

TRASKOW, Pa., Feb. 19.—A crowd of Hungarians and Poles laid siege to an Italian boarding shanty here yesterday. Stones and revolvers were used by the besiegers and every window in the house was shattered. John Basko appeared at the door of the shanty with a gun and fired two shots above the heads of the crowd, he claims, for the purpose of scaring them away. John Paul, an innocent spectator, received a fatal wound. Basko was arrested.

Fatal Explosion at Everson.

EVERSON, Pa., Feb. 19.—An explosion occurred in the rolling mill here last night, which resulted in the killing of John Coley almost instantly. Coley threw cold water on the live cinders of the furnace, and the result was an explosion, in which Coley, a man named Ryan and several others were injured.

Work Resumed.

READING, Pa., Feb. 20.—After a shut down of two months the well known Jones ore mines in Caernarvon township, this county, resumed operations with a large force of men.

A Murderer Caught.

READING, Pa., Feb. 20.—The fugitive wife murderer, Henry Lelo, of this city, was captured near Robesonia, ten miles from here. He was found in a smoke house belonging to a farmer. On the approach of the officers he attempted suicide by shooting himself in the temple. His wound is severe, but not necessarily fatal. He was lodged in jail.

Mrs. Taylor's Funeral.

KENNETT SQUARE, Feb. 21.—All that was earthly of Mrs. Rebecca Way Taylor, mother of the late Bayard Taylor, was laid to rest in Longwood cemetery, near here. The funeral was attended by a large number of friends, among whom were some distinguished persons from a distance. Rev. Thomas Burrows read the solemn and impressive burial services of the Episcopal church at the house and grave, and made some fitting remarks, as did also Mr. George Gounod, of New York.

G. A. R. Presentation.

CHAMBERSBURG, Feb. 21.—The Women's Relief corps, of Chambersburg, presented a handsome flag to Hausum post, Grand Army of the Republic, in the post rooms tonight. The presentation speech was made by A. L. Langdon and the flag was received by T. R. Gilland on behalf of the post. After the ceremonies a banquet was tendered by the relief corps to the members of the post and a large number of other guests.

Killed Instantly.

HAZLETON, Feb. 21.—Anthony McMonigle and John Lenzo, an Italian, were waiting at the foot of No. 4 slope at Audendried to be hoisted to the surface. A loaded car was on the slope at the time, and in some manner unknown jumped the track and ran into the pillar. The rope was broken and the car descended to the bottom, killing the two men instantly. A number of other miners had narrow escapes.

Barely Escaped with Their Lives.

READING, Pa., Feb. 22.—J. P. Bellman's store, at Danbery ville, this county, was burned with its contents at midnight. The postoffice and a dwelling in the building, occupied by Samuel Gehret and family, were also burned, the family barely escaping with their lives.

A Priest Disperses a Mob.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Feb. 21.—Martin Wilker, the "Polish king," who led the church riot at Plymouth a few few weeks ago, was brought here and held in $2,000 bail for his appearance at the next criminal court. On his return home last evening he and his faction marched to the residence of Rev. Father Szimfoski, formerly of Buffalo, the priest assigned to the charge by Bishop O'Hara, and demanded possession of the premises. This the priest refused to give. The Poles became insulting, and the clergyman appeared at the door of the parsonage and ordered them to leave at the point of a revolver. They retreated in confusion.

Five Murderers to Hang.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 21.—Five murderers will be hanged on Wednesday, April 9, the death warrants having been issued by Governor Beaver. The doomed men are: William H. Bartholomew, Northampton county; Zachary Taylor, Greene county; William H. Smith, Allegheny county; Charles Carter, Cambria county, and Alfred Andrews, Center county.

Tried to Thaw Out Dynamite.

GREENSBURG, Pa., Feb 24.—At Adamsburg William Stewart was instantly killed, his wife and two children seriously injured, and William Crock and William Stemets perhaps fatally injured. Stewart placed a frozen stick of dynamite in the kitchen stove oven to thaw it out. A terrific explosion occurred, blowing the kitchen to pieces and scattering fragments of the shattered stove in all directions, with the above result.

A Well Known Teacher Killed.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 24.—Professor Isaac N. Stevenson, one of the oldest school principals of this city, and well known throughout the state, was struck by a passenger train on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad at Hazlewood and instantly killed. His body was horribly mangled.

Sudden Death of Pitcher Blair.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 24.—William T. Blair, the well known baseball pitcher recently engaged by the National League club, died at the home of his parents in this city. Blair was 25 years of age and played ball for the past eight years. Two weeks ago he was stricken with influenza, which turned into pneumonia and typhoid fever, causing his death.

Wife Murderer Lebo's Effort Successful.

READING, Pa., Feb. 24.—Henry Lebo, the wife murderer, died in jail Saturday night from the effects of the bullet wound in his head, which he inflicted when captured. This makes the third death in the tragedy. Mrs. Lebo's father, Daniel Fisher, having dropped dead when he heard of the shooting of his daughter.

The Bank Will Resume Business.

LANCASTER, Pa., Feb. 24.—The stockholders of the Lincoln National bank, from which Cashier Bard stole $42,000, held a meeting and decided to restore the capital of the bank and resume business.

A Minister Wants Damages.

HAMBURG, Feb 24.—Rev. Oscar D. Miller, who narrowly escaped death by being thrown over a fifteen foot high bridge into a stream of water, with his horse and buggy, while on his way to fill an engagement, will ask the town council to reimburse him for damages sustained. His head was badly cut and an arm and leg bruised.

FIFTY-FIRST CONGRESS.

Condensed Report of Proceedings in Senate and House.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Arguments before the house were commenced today by representatives of the various cities ambitious to secure the World's fair of 1892. Mr. Flower, of New York, opened the ball for New York, and was followed by Messrs. Cummings, Tracy and others. Messrs. Hitt and Adams, of Illinois, advocated Chicago's claims, and Washington and St. Louis were well represented. Opposition to any fair whatever was manifested on the part of southern members.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The exposition question was warmly debated by the members of the house.

There was considerable opposition shown toward holding a fair at all by a number of members, among them Mills, of Texas; Morse, of Massachusetts; Peters, of Kansas.

Mr. Mills said an immense amount of business that did not belong to congress had been forced upon the representatives of the people. The government had nothing to do with a World's fair. It was a state proposition. Mr. Mills said that Columbus had never seen North America; he never knew there was such a continent as North America. He had left Spain to hunt Indians; landed at San Salvador and gone back home again. He had come a second, a third and a fourth time, and gone back home without ever knowing of the existence of the country that wanted to honor him.

This proposition he held was a foolish proposition. Since 1876 these fairs had been increasing, and if they kept on increasing helped by government appropriations, the people would finally break down under the burden of taxation. These fairs could be held without any help from the government. If the city of Chicago or the city of New York, Washington or St. Louis wanted a fair its business men could raise the necessary money. He thought the bill would pass, and it would be charged up to patriotism and to Columbus. He supposed that he would have to cast his vote for some particular site, and that vote would be cast for St. Louis. When the question of passing the bill came up he would cast his vote against the proposition like a little man.

Mr. Spinola (N. Y.) pledged his city to refrain from asking a dollar from the government. He did not approve of the section of the bill appropriating $1,500,000, and would vote against it. He dilated upon the grandeur of New York's financial record; and, speaking of its property, said that its assessed value equaled that of three states of the Union. Mr. Wallace (N. Y.) in advocating New York city said: "We have the money. We have the site; give us the fair and we will promise you an exposition of which every American will be proud." Mr. Raines (N. Y.) pleaded earnestly for New York. A small affair, he said, such as a National Republican convention overtaxed Chicago's accommodations in 1888.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—A memorial signed by about thirty leading bankers and merchants of Wall, Broadway and Nassau streets, New York city, was presented in the senate and house to-day protesting against the removal of the custom house in that city to Bowling Green, and against the erection of a custom house and appraisers' stores on the Bowling Green site. The petitioners urge congress to amend the act of September, 1888, so as to provide merely for the erection of appraisers' stores, and that the secretary of the treasury be directed to select a site for the stores that will be of easy access to the importers and facilitate their business. August Belmont & Co., Brown Brothers & Co., Winslow Lanier & Co. and J. W. Seligman & Co. head the list of signers to the petition.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—The senate today had another animated discussion of the charge that Mr. Call had interpolated remarks in the official report of the proceedings of the senate. The resolution offered by Mr. Chandler censuring Mr. Call was taken up and Mr. Sherman moved its reference to the committee on privileges and elections.

Mr. Call stated, as a matter of personal privilege, that The Washington Post contained an article this morning with headlines: "Call's Bitter Remarks," "He Slipped a Paragraph Into The Congressional Record." That, Mr. Call said, was a falsehood. He had slipped into The Congressional Record nothing that had not been in substance uttered on the floor of the senate. He gave notice to the senator from New Hampshire, who had arraigned him by the resolution, that he (Mr. Call) would arraign him (Mr. Chandler) before the senate, and would demand an investigation by the committee for making an accusation that was untrue. He (Mr. Call) would convict the senator on evidence of his own that he did hear and know that he (Mr. Call) had uttered on the floor of the senate substantially the whole of the charge contained in the paragraph. He would not ask the censure by the senate of the senator from New Hampshire, but he would leave him to the just judgment of public opinion throughout the country for having heard his (Mr. Call's) remarks and having had neither the courage nor the manhood to resent them.

Mr. Sherman declared that the rules of the senate had just been violated by the senator from Florida in as gross a manner as he had ever witnessed. When the senate of the United States came to such a condition that the charge of cowardice could be applied to a senator, and that a senator could be charged with stating a thing falsely, it seemed to him that the senate was receding from the dignity which had distinguished it from the foundation of the government.

Mr. Call—If I have violated any rule of the senate by any observations which I have made today or formerly, I withdrew them, and I apologize to the senate.

Mr. Chandler—I will not reply to the gentleman from Florida this morning in unparliamentary language. The complaint which I made was that the senator had inserted in his remarks words which he had not uttered. The senator wrote language in the report accusing me of all the crimes in the decalogue, and he has now, this morning, charged me with being a coward for not replying to that which I did not hear, and to that which he afterward wrote in The Record report. When the senate has decided on this stage what language it is parliamentary to use I will take occasion to defend myself from all his imputations. Mr. Sherman's motion to refer the resolution to the committee on privileges and elections was agreed to.

The senate then passed the bill granting a pension of $100 a month to the widow of Maj. Gen. Judson Kilpatrick.

Horace Greeley's Sister Dead.

CORY, Pa., Feb. 26.—Mrs. Lovell Greeley, a sister of the late Horace Greeley, died at her home here, on the Greeley farm, Monday night, aged 75 years. About twenty-five years ago, while on a visit to this section, Horace Greeley invested in considerable land, and among his purchases was a farm at Spring Creek, to which his sister and her husband, who was her cousin, and family removed. Her husband died some years ago, and she with her children have lived there since. Mrs. Greeley had been afflicted for several years with paralysis.

Hon. William M. Post Sued.

SUSQUEHANNA, Pa., Feb. 26.—James E. Carmait, a large land owner of Montrose, and ex district attorney of Susquehanna, who recently made an assignment, has sued Hon. William M. Post, of Montrose, for damages amounting to $50,000. The suit is understood to grow out of Mr. Carmait's trusteeship of an estate in which Mr. Post was auditor, on exceptions to the final accounting of the pros cutor. Mr. Post is a widely known lawyer, and has been a Democratic candidate for the state senate.

He Lost Father, Mother and Sweetheart.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Feb. 26.—Rev. Frank Kahler, of Southington, Conn., who committed suicide near Allentown, Pa., Sunday, was educated at the University of Pennsylvania and at Yale. While at Yale he lost by death his father and mother and the young lady to whom he was engaged to be married. He suffered from melancholy, and was advised by his physician to take a long rest. He was about returning from a visit to Pennsylvania at the time of the suicide.

More Indictments Found.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—The grand jury found two indictments against Cashier Van Zandt, of the Lenox Hill bank, one for forgery and the other for perjury in connection with the bank wrecking. Van Zandt has been arrested, and was placed under $5,000 bail by Judge Martine. Mr. Van Zandt failed to secure a bondsman and was taken to the tombs. Ex-President Wallack has also been indicted for perjury. He will be called on for more bail on this account.

Twenty-five Years for Burglary.

BOSTON, Feb. 26.—William Kelly pleaded guilty of robbing Keene's jewelry story and was sentenced to twenty-five years' imprisonment. He had already served two terms in the state prison, and was thus under the ban of the habitual criminal act. This is the first sentence under the act in this country.

Defaulter and Eloper.

ATLANTA, Feb. 26.—There is a sensation here over the disappearance of Thomas H. McKinnon, a prominent renting agent, who is short several thousand dollars in his accounts. It is asserted that McKinnon left with a woman with whom he has been intimate, leaving his wife and family behind.

Bard and Hull Held for Trial.

LANCASTER, Pa., Feb. 26.—Cashier Bard, of the Lincoln National bank, and Hull, his accessory, charged with robbing the bank of $42,000, have been held in $15,000 bail for trial.

A Keystone Lumber Failure.

CARLISLE, Pa., Feb 26.—Henry R. Mosser, lumber dealer at New Cumberland, has failed. Judgments for $45,000 were entered against him.

CHICAGO WINS THE DAY.

She Carries the House on the Eighth Ballot.

CHICAGO 157 AND NEW YORK 107.

Details of the Great Battle That Proved a Waterloo for the New York Legions. A Unanimous Resolution Passed Giving the Exposition to the Windy City.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Contrary to general expectation the World's fair fight in the house was wound up at a late hour yesterday afternoon and resulted in a big victory for Chicago. That city was declared winner on the eighth ballot, which resulted as follows:

Chicago	157
New York	107
St. Louis	25
Washington	18
Necessary to a choice	154

Unanimously Given the Fair.

At the announcement of the eighth ballot the friends of Chicago made the walls of the house re-echo with their cries of victory. A motion was then made and carried unanimously giving the exposition to Chicago.

The Story of the Battle.

After the reading of the journal Mr. Reyburn, of Pennsylvania, the successor of the late William D. Kelley, was sworn in. The house then proceeded to ballot upon the selection of a site for the World's fair.

When Speaker Reed rapped for order at noon there were about 300 representatives on the floor. The galleries were crowded with people waiting to witness the struggle between the adherents of the rival cities on the floor. Chauncey M. Depew and ex-Secretary W. C. Whitney and others from New York city, Mayor Cregier, of Chicago; Governor Francis, of Missouri, and a host of representative men from these cities, and many Washington men, members of the original board of promotion, were in the galleries or corridors interested and anxious spectators. The clerk of the house read the special order, prescribing the method of voting on the site question, and requiring some one place to have a majority of the votes cast.

The First Ballot.

Mr. Blount (Ga.) wanted to know if there would be an opportunity offered to pass upon the question as to whether there should be a fair before selecting a site. Speaker Reed replied that under the special order there could not be, and directed the clerk to call the roll for the first ballot, which resulted: Chicago, 115; New York, 72; St. Louis, 61; Washington, 55, and one vote for Cumberland Gap, cast by Mr. Skinner (N. C.).

Six More Ballots.

The result of the first vote was very gratifying to the friends of Chicago, both on and off the floor. After the announcement by the speaker of the result another roll call was ordered, which resulted: Chicago, 131; New York, 83; St. Louis, 59; Washington, 46, and Cumberland Gap had disappeared as a contestant.

On the second ballot New York gained 10 votes and Chicago 8; St. Louis lost 2, and Washington 8, as follows: Chicago, 123; New York, 82; St. Louis, 59; Washington, 48. Whole number of votes cast, 309. Necessary to a choice, 155.

The third developed 306 votes, as follows: Chicago, 127; New York, 93; St. Louis, 53; Washington, 34.

The fourth ballot resulted: Chicago, 134; New York, 95; St. Louis, 48; Washington, 29. Necessary to a choice, 154.

The fifth ballot showed a total of 312; New York gained 15 votes, while Chicago added but 6 to her column. St. Louis meanwhile fell off 10 votes and Washington 5. The fifth ballot showed: Chicago, 140; New York, 110; St. Louis, 38; Washington, 24. Necessary to a choice, 157.

All was excitement as the roll call for the sixth ballot began. The total vote was again 312, of which Chicago received 149; New York, 116; St. Louis, 28, and Washington, 10.

The New York people felt discouraged at their small gain. The reading of the vote was demanded to gain time for consultation, and just as the seventh roll call was begun Wilson (W. Va.) moved to take a recess until 11 o'clock the following day. The Chicagoans raised points of order and insisted the motion came too late, but Speaker Reed declared he had recognized Wilson in time. Wilson then demanded the yeas and nays and they were ordered.

There was much excitement at this time. It was half-past 4, and the New York men were urging a recess for the purpose, it was rumored, of transferring their strength and that of St. Louis over night to Washington. The yeas and nay vote showed 158 in favor of and 174 opposed to a recess. "Call the roll," came from the Chicagoans, and the seventh ballot was taken.

Three hundred and eleven votes were cast —154 for Chicago, 112 for New York, 27 for St. Louis and 17 for Washington. Chicago was just two votes short of a majority. Mason (Ill.) dragged Reyburn, the new member from Pennsylvania, forward, and he said he wanted to change his vote and he did so. It was expected this would lead to a stampede to Chicago, but it did not.

The Vote on the Eighth.

The vote in detail on the eighth and deciding ballot was as follows:

The members not mentioned in the vote below, voted for Chicago on the eighth ballot.

For New York: Andrew, Baker, Bankhead, Banks, Barnes, Beckwith, Belden, Bergen, Bingham, Blanchard, Blount, Boatner, Breckinridge of Arkansas, Browne of Virginia, Brunner and Buchanan of New Jersey, Buchanan of Virginia, Buckalew, Bunn, Campbell, Candler of Georgia, Carlton, Cate, Clancy, Clarke of Alabama, Clements, Covert, Cowles, Crisp, Cummings, Delano, Dibble, Dingley, Dunphy, Edmunds, Elliott, Farquhar, Fitch, Flood, Flower, Fowler, Geissenhainer, Grimes, Harmer, Henderson of North Carolina, Herbert, Kerr of Pennsylvania, Ketcham, Knapp, Laidlaw, Lansing, Lehlbach, Lester of Georgia, Lodge, Magner, Maish, Martin of Texas, McAdoo, McCarthy, McCreary, McMillin, McRae, Mile, Moffitt, Mo[illegible] of New Hampshire, Moore of Texas, Mu[illegible], Nute, O'Neill of Pennsylvania, Payne, Peel, Pennington, Perry, Pierce, Price, Quackenbush, Quinn, Raines, Reilly, Richardson, Robertson, Rogers, Rowland, Russell, Sanford, Sawyer, Sherman, Simonds, Spinola, Stahlnecker, Stivers, Tillman, Tracey, Tucker, Turner of Georgia, Turner of New York, Venable, Wallace of New York, Washington, Wheeler of Alabama, Wilcox, Wiley, Wilkinson, Wise, Wright, Yardley, Speaker Reed. Total, 107.

For St. Louis: Bland, Breckinridge of Kentucky, Caruth, Catchings, Cochrane, Dockery, Ellis, Enloe, Frank, Goodnight, Hatch, Heard, Kinzey, Mansur, Mills, Montgomery, Neldringhaus, Norton, O'Neal of Indiana, Stockdale, Stone of Kentucky, Stone of Missouri, Tarsney, Walker of Missouri, Wilson of Missouri. Total, 25.

For Washington: Bowden, Browne of Virginia, Compton, De Haven, Gibson, Hemphill, Hooker, Lee, Lester of Virginia, McComas, O'Ferrall, Rusk, Skinner, Stewart of Georgia, Stewart of Texas, Stockbridge, Stump, Wilson of West Virginia. Total, 18.

The Changes on the Eighth.

The changes on the eighth and last ballot were: Abbott, from St. Louis to Chicago; Catchings, from Chicago to St. Louis; Cobb, from St. Louis to New York; Enloe, from New York to St. Louis; Hare, from St. Louis to Chicago; Hemphill, from New York to Washington; Reilly, from Washington to New York; Skinner, from New York to Washington; Wallace of Massachusetts, from New York to Chicago.

When the speaker announced the result and a victory for Chicago, the Chicagoans shouted and cheered. The house was in an uproar, and in the midst of it at 6 p. m. adjourned.

The News in New York.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—There was much regret expressed by citizens of New York when it became known that the house of representatives had voted to have the World's fair located at Chicago. The result was attributed by many to political quarrels in this state, and by others to the efforts of the railroads centering at Chicago to secure the fair for that place.

Mr. Thomas C. Platt was seen at the Fifth Avenue hotel. He said: "I am very much disappointed with the vote at Washington as I had hoped that New York would secure the World's fair. I do not give up hope yet, as there is a possibility of the senate deciding to give the fair to New York, believing as I do that the majority of that body is in favor of New York."

He Tried to Help New York.

To a statement that it had been generally thought that he opposed the fair being held in New York and that he went to Washington to achieve such a result, he said:

"I venture to say that any such remark as to my visit to Washington came from a Democratic source. My visit was on business of a commercial nature, but while there I spent some time among the Republican members trying to secure votes for New York, and I know that I got votes that would otherwise have gone to Chicago. It is not true that I have opposed the fair at any time, but, on the contrary, have done all I could to bring it here."

The 1892 Question.

Mr. Platt further said he did not think the Republican party feared having the fair here in 1892 because of its being a presidential year, and gave as his reason for so thinking that the two-third amendment to the bill enacted at Albany precluded any possible advantage to any political party. He believed the result at Washington was due to the massing of southern Democratic congressmen in favor of St. Louis and Chicago.

A Statue for "Tippecano" Harrison.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—The house committee on the library has authorized a favorable report on the bill introduced in the house by Mr. Caldwell, appropriating $25,000 for the erection of a monument to the late President William Henry Harrison, at North Bend, O. A report accompanying the bill states that the distinguished public services of Mr. Harrison, through a number of the most trying years in the early history of this country, and notably his military achievements, his prominence and ability as a statesman in the capacity of governor of Indian territory, member of congress, state senator and president of the United States, renders a monument necessary as a tribute to his memory, and the committee believe that there is no more appropriate place than the locality to which he retired after active service and in which his remains are interred, and the committee recommend the passage of the bill.

A Curious Contract Labor Question.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—Andrew A. Lewis, of Christ Street church, Lewisburg, Pa., has asked the treasury department a curious question, in which the scope of the alien contract labor law is involved. A resident of Lewisburg and a citizen of the United States removed to Canada with his family some years ago and took the oath of allegiance to the queen. Among the members of his family was a boy who has since become a minister, and his father's old friends at Lewisburg desire to call the son and minister to Christ church, and ask the secretary of the treasury whether, if he comes, as he will, with a stipulated salary per year, it will be a violation of law. It is probable that the young minister will have to remain in Canada.

Northumberland Farmers.

The Farmers' Institute for Northumberland County met at Milton, Feb. 20. John Hoffa, a member of the State Board of Agriculture, acting as chairman.

The following was the programme; "What is the most economical food for milch cows?" discussed by Hon. John Woodward, of Centre County; A. P. Young, Columbia County; E. M. Tewksbury, Catawissa. An essy, "What shall I do?" was read by Hon J. M. Follmer; one on "Dangers of immigration," by Frank Chamberlin; one on "Why carelessners does not pay," by William Koch, Pottsgrove. and "What legislation does the farmer need?" by E. M. Tewksbury, Catawisa.

There was a question box for every one, as follows; "Bee culture," by H. H. Brown' Lightstreet, Pa.; "Fence laws of Pennsylvania," by Thomas Sweuk, Jr.; "Relation of live stock to fertility," by Dr. Armsby, State College, Pa. A lecture on "What farmers most need to know" was delivered by Hon. John A. Woodward, associate editor of the Farm Journal. An essay on "Graded schools in rural discts" was read by A. P. Young, Millville Pa, and one on 'Publ c high ways,' by L. V. House'. The road and fence question were also discussed.

Centralia.

Tuesday evening the 18th inst,, witnessed one of the most pleasant social events in the history Centralia, it being the occasion of an evening party, given by Miss Mary Murphy at the residence of her father, Judge Murphy on Locust Avenue, in honor of her guest Miss Agnes Downey, of Shamokin. The early part of the evening was very agreeably passed in dancing, vocal and instrumental music, and cards, and at midnight the dining room was thrown open, and the guests sat down to a most elegant collation. The tables were very handsomely decorated with natural flowers and fairly groaned under the weight of the numerous delicacies piled upon them. After supper it is needless to say, all present did ample justice, dancing was resumed in the rooms down stairs by those who were devoted to the beautiful terpsichorean art, while in the spacious parlors above, those who found no pleasure in the "dreamy waltz" amused themselves with music and various games. The merry hours glided by, all unheeded by the gay throng and new day was nearly four hours old when the guests dispersed for their homes, each one assuring the fair hostess that they had spent one of the most enjoyable evenings in their recollection. A list of those present follows: Misses Mary Murphy, Maggie Murphy, Ray Reese, Fannie Millard, Lizzie Fortner, Sallie Troutman, Annie Davis, Lizzie Leam and Mollie Curry and Messrs. Frank Miller, John Irvin, Will Briggs, Lewis Davis, John Lynch, Chas. Fortner, John Groody and Pat'k Curry of Centralia: Miss Maggie Curry Miss Reilly and Mr. Thomas Reilly, of Shenandoah; Miss Maggie Groody and Mr. Thornton, of Ashland; Miss Maggie Kaier, of Mahanoy City; Miss Agnes Downey, of Shamokin; Miss Darrah, of Reading, and Mr. Peter McGinnes of Mt. Carmel.—Adrocate.

On Saturday the 15th, Paul Boscan, a Pole, was discharged from the Centralia Colliery by Outside Superintendent Thomas Reese for disorderly conduct. The next Monday morning he appeared at the breaker and wanted to be taken back, but was refused; he became very angry, and, going to his boarding house, procured a revolver and started once more for the mine.

Concealing himself near the breaker, he waited patiently for the Superintendent to appear. His actions were discovered by an employee, who notified Mr. Reese of his danger, and a messenger was dispatched for an officer. After some difficulty they succeeded in disarming the desperate rascal and locked him up.

A desperate fight occurred at Montana, Conyngham township recently, says a dispatch from Centralia to the Times.

John Kostenbauder, a farmer residing at that place, was married about a year ago to a Miss Lenden, of Red Tavern. Since that time he has been keeping up an intimacy with a Mrs. Lenhart, a former sweetheart, and has spent a great deal of his time in her company.

While Mrs. Kostenbauder was visiting a neighbor, Mrs. Lenhart appeared at the house and after waiting a short time was admitted by Kostenbauder, who evidently expecting her. His wife, however, returned sooner than was expected, and upon entering found them in a very compromising position. Mrs. Lenhart fled, while Kostenbauder sprang upon his wife and beat her shamefully. His father who lives a short distance away, hurried to the scene in time to save Mrs. Kostenbauder life, as her husband was in the act of throwing her over a high porch. Seeing his father the desperate man fled, but was overtaken and brought to this place where he was given a hearing and sent to Bloomsburg Jail. Mrs. Kostenbauder brought suit against Mrs. Lenhart and she was held under $250 bail to appear at the next term of court.

Two Years Ago.

I was a sight to behold and was unable to enjoy life at all. Now I am the picture of health and can eat anything. What did it? Sulphur Bitters cured me of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, after suffering two years — W. H. Bowman, Manchester, N. H. 2-28 2t.

DIP ONE END OF A SPONGE IN WATER and the whole will soon become saturated. So a disease in one part of the body affects other parts. You have noticed this yourself. Kidney and Liver troubles, unless checked, will induce constipation, piles, rheumatism and gravel. A timely use of Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy will prevent these results. It is pleasant to the taste and may be taken freely by children and delicate females. It gives elasticity, life and cheeks with roses on them.

Be Sure

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

To Get

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me buy their own instead of Hood's; he told me their's would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other.

Hood's

When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering a great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked, and had for some time, like a person in consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself sometimes, and my friends frequently speak of it." MRS. ELLA A. GOFF, 61 Terrace Street, Boston.

Nervous, Bilious, or Congestive Forms.

This Remedy is the perscription of one of the leading physicians of Paris, France, and was used by him with unparalleled success for over thirty years, it was first given to the public as a proprietary medicine in 1818. Since which time it has found its way into almost every country on the face of the globe, and become a favorite remedy with thousands of the leading physicians. Medical societies have discussed its marvelous success at their annual conventions, and after their offecial chemists have analyzed it and found that it contained no opiates, bromides or other harmful ingredients placed it among their standard remedies.

WHITE & CONNER.

Dr. I. W. Willits and Dr. J. C. Reifsnyder will form a partnership on the 1st. of March for the practice of their profession. Dr. Reifsnyder has been in Philadelphia the past winter taking a special course in surgery and diseases of children, while acting as assistant to Dr. Horwitz at Jefferson Hospital.

George Masters will deliver an illustrated lecture on "Yellowstone Park" in the Millville Opera House on Saturday evening March 1st, for the benefit of the Mordansville church. Mr. Masters is a son of David Masters of Philadelphia, and is a graduate of Swarthmore College. His lecture will be entertaining and instructive.

Leading physicians recommend Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Old and young take it with perfect safety. It cleanses the blood, strengthens the nerves, and vitalizes the system. Popular experience has long placed this medicine at the head of tonic alteratives

Alex Knouse is busily engaged in sawing shingles near a timber tract about two miles from Benton He can furnish a first quality pine or hemlock shingle at low prices Nearly seventy-five thousand shingles are ready for delivery, with plenty of timber and good facilities for still further manufacture.

We call attention of our readers to the change of advertisement of J. Saltzer. Mr. Saltzer takes the lead for Musical Instruments and sewing machines in this section of the State. You can do better buying of him than of any stranger, besides he is always ready and willing to give any instructions to his patrons It is far better to patronize one whom you know well, and who guarantees satisfaction.

Mr. C. Mears who returned from Kansas last week, brings a good report of the outlook for his washing machines. Wherever his machine has been introduced it meets with wide sales. His agents in the western states speak in glowing terms of the good qualities of the washer, and predict large sales. Their factory in this place is always busy in the manufacture of the washers. It will be but a short time until C. MEARS & SON will be obliged to enlarge their factory to meet the demand.

The Wilkes-Barre Record, says: A prominent Lehigh Valley R. R. man was heard to say a few days ago that a bridge across the Susquehanna a short distance above Wilkes-Barre would be finished by next fall. The new station will be reached by the old canal road bed. The Harvey's Lake branch is now being extended toward Bernice and the coming summer will see a large force of men grading from a point in that vicinity toward Williamsport.

The following letters are held at Bloomsburg, Pa., post-office, and will be sent to the dead letter office, March 11, 1890.

In an opinion filed on Monday Judge Ikeler holds that a guardian, administrator or other person holding the position of a trustee, who uses the trust fund, and fails to pay over when ordered to do so by the court, must be imprisoned until discharged under the insolvent laws. It has been the practice in some of the courts to discharge such trustee when brought in on an attachment, if he answers that he has no money in his possession and therefore it is impossible for him to pay. The law held by Judge Ikeler ought to have a salutary effect, for it is notice to all concerned that a breach of their trust by embezzling the funds will be visited by imprisonment.

A New Kind of Insurance.

has been put in operation by the manufacturers of Dr. Pierce's medicines. His "Golden Medical Discovery" and "Favorite Prescription" are sold by druggists under the manufacturers' positive guarantee. Either benefit or a complete cure is attained, or money paid for these medicines is returned. The certificate of guarantee given in connection with sale of these medicines is equivalent to a policy of insurance. The "Golden Medical discovery" cures all humors and blood taints, from whatever cause arising, skin and scalp diseases, scrofulous sores and swellings. The "Favorite Prescription" cures all those derangements and weaknesses peculiar to women.

Don't hawk, hawk, and blow, blow, disgusting everybody, but use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

Lloyd Zaner is now in the west buying horses. He will bring in a car load in about 3 weeks.

J. B. Laubauch, of Benton, dentist, after April 1st. will be in his office the last 15 days of each month. He is a skillful operator and enjoys a large practice.

Jno. Zaner of Forks was in town Thursday morning. He reports that his son Alfred of Audubon, Iowa who has been helpless for several years will be brought home in a few weeks.

There will be a re-union of the 3rd Division 9th Army Corps, Gen. Hartranft's old division on Thursday March 25th. All who could attend should report to Sergeant G. W. Sterner Bloomsburg, Pa.

The "Electric Vibrator" used by M. J. Hess, of Bloomsburg, in extracting teeth is a great improvement over other methods. It is guranteed not to shock. There is a continuous current, so arranged that each one can take as much as desired. A third wire is attached to the forceps, and this carries the current to the tooth to be extracted. It is certainly one of the best methods for allaying pain yet introduced.

THE FARMING QUESTION.

"There is great complaint everywhere that farming no longer pays. There must be a reason for this. What is it?"—COLUMBIAN, Feb. 14. 1890. The COLUMBIAN also invites peoples' views on the subject for publication. In our opinion there can be no views nor theories to offer on the subject. It resolves itself to a settled and fixed condition. It costs the farmer to raise and prepare his produce for sale, nearly or quite as much as he can realize for it in the market. Real estate has doubled and thribled in valuation on the "Assess Books" since the war, but it will not sell in the market for nearly as much as it did before that period. Farms do not sell for more than the improvements cost. In numbers, there is a gradual increase of public officials with an upward slide of fees and salaries, while at the same time the farmer is being reduced and impoverished by the constant and uniform depreciation of real estate, chattels, farm products and increasing taxation. The farmer is obliged to sell in the unprotected market and to buy in the protected. Congress nor the legislature have never legislated in the interest of the farmer. Among all classes with whom the farmer transacts business there is no shrinkage in the products, or their equivalents, except in that of his own. It requires double the amount of produce in exchange for an article that it did twenty-five years ago. If the farmer buys a dollars' worth it requires double the amount to obtain it. A change for the better is practically impossible without legislation in the farmers' behalf. A comparison of several occupations may also be in order.

Business men offer farmers for hauling lumber, railroad ties, &c., that by overloading they can realize from $1.50 to $2.00 per day. Carpenters and other mechanics charge from $1.25 to $1.50 per day and boarded. We know of carpenters that get from $1.87½ to $2.25 per day right along. Doctors charge from $1.00 to $1.25 for a call with an additional fee for every additional mile. The merchant will not sell his goods without a profitable percentage. Twenty-five years ago, and later on wheat per bushel ranged from $2.50 to $2.00, rye from $1.75 to $1.00, corn from $1.50 to 90, oats from 80 cts. to 60, hay from $20 per ton to $15, pork from 18 cts. to 15, beef by the side from 15 cts. to 12, and every other farm product in proportion. At present wheat is 80 cts., rye 50, corn 45, oats 28, hay $7 to $8 per ton, pork 5 cts. per lb., and all farm products in proportion. Formerly a bushel of wheat, a little over a bushel of rye or corn and less than two of oats, paid a doctor's trip, or more than paid a mechanic for a day's work. At present it takes nearly two bushels of wheat, three of rye or corn and four or five of oats to pay for the same services. Now apply the same test to our taxes. It takes more than double the amount of produce to pay the same amount of taxes in the given period; hence our taxes are more than double outside of the increase of real estate valuation. From these statements any one can see how farming compares with other occupations, including public officials' fees and salaries.

If the above statements are true, we believe we have given a substantial reason why "farming no longer pays." If the statements are not true, the farmer is not confronted by the above condition, and views and theories why farming does not pay as "compared with other occupations" will be in order.

THE LONGENBERGER CASE.

AFTER YEARS OF LITIGATION THE MATTER IS ENDED.

George Longenberger died many years ago, owning with George Miller and Daniel Fisher, a tract of land in Beaver township, in the warrantee name of Catharine Longenberger, which land was also claimed, on a tax sale, by Simon P. Kase. On the 1st day of August 1853 William G. Hurley brought ejectment, for Longenberger, Miller and Fisher for the land, against Joshua Robinson and William Boyle, tenants in possession under Simon P. Kase. Col. Freeze appeared for the defendant on the 11th of September 1863. Subsequently, on a rule taken Dr. H. W. McReynolds and others were made defendants, and from that time the case was known as Longenberger vs. McReynolds. It was tried in court after arbitration and appeal, before Judge Elwell, by M. E. Jackson, Nicholson and Hakes for the plaintiff, and Freeze, R. F. Clark, Jacob Hoffman of Berks, and John B. Packer of Sunbury for the defendants. There was a verdict for the plaintiffs, and a writ of error was taken by the defendants. The case was argued in the Supreme court and is reported in 57 Penna. State Reports, 13 The Supreme Court reversed the case and sent it back for another trial, in March 1868. It was again tried in the Columbia County court, and a verdict, for the plaintiff was again rendered, Linn, Freeze, and Buckalew appearing for the defendants, and Ricketts, ex-chief justice Geo. W. Woodward, Jackson and Henry M. Hoyt for the plaintiff. This also went to the Supreme Court and the judgment was affirmed. It is reported in 75 Penna. State Reports, 13. Ex-chief justice James Thompson had been retained by the defendants, and was present to take part in the argument before the Supreme court at Philadelphia on January 28, 1874 Judge Linn had opened for the plaintiffs, and then followed by Judge Woodward and Mr. Ricketts on the other side, Judge Thompson began the closing argument, and before speaking five minutes he sank down in his chair and expired. A third action was brought, and tried at Carlisle, Cumberland county, having been removed from here, and resulted in a verdict for Longenberger and was affirmed. This settled the question of the title of Longenberger, and subsequently in 1867 an action was brought for mesne profits by the Longenberger heirs and S. P. Wolverton who during the litigation had purchased the title of Fisher and Miller, against McReynolds, and others. This was tried in Wyoming county, having been removed from here.

In 1874 James McAlarney and wife, the latter being a daughter of George Longenberger, filed a bill in equity against S. P. Wolverton, praying for an account, and the appointment of a receiver of the moneys arising from the coal mines, during the litigation. Mr. Freeze appeared for Mr. Wolverton, and after several years of taking testimony before Col. S. Knorr, master and examiner, the case found its way to the Supreme Court and was argued at Philadelphia in March 1885, resulting in a decree giving Mr. Wolverton about $1500, which was paid and ended his connection with the case.

At the beginning of this last suit in September 1874, Judge Elwell appointed John A. Funston as Receiver to receive the moneys arising from the lands in dispute. The fund that came into his hands was derived from the coal mines at Glen City. Mr. Funston filed a bond in the sum of $30 000 with Joseph Sharpless and H. J. Clark as sureties. J. A. Losee was then operating the mines and began to pay money to the Receiver early in 1875 in sums varying from five dollars to five hundred dollars at a time, paying in altogether over $20,000. This money was invested by the Receiver and earned over $10,000, making the entire fund handled by Mr. Funston over $31 000

For several years the rents were collected by legal process, the operator of the mines being financially embarrassed, and in 1880 the lease and all this personal property was sold by the sheriff. Since then but little coal has been mined there.

On Monday February 17th, the court made an order directing the Receiver to pay over the money in his hands to the parties in interest, all difficulties having been settled by agreement. The balance in hand was $11,997.18 as shown by the accounts filed by the Receiverr and his investments had been so judiciously made that on Thursday of last week he paid over the full amount Notwithstanding the fact that Mr. Funston had served for sixteen years, the small amounts paid in at a time, the frequent investments that had to be made, he had the gratification of being able to show that not one dollar had been lost, during his trusteeship. This exhibit most careful management, and Mr. Funston can retire from his position with the knowledge of having executed his trust most faithfully.

Of the lawyers who were connected in this long litigation Hurley, Clark, Jackson, Hakes, F. Hughes, Woodward, Thompson are dead. Besides those heretofore named, who have been concerned for different parties are L. E. Waller, Geo. E. Elwell, and G. R Bedford of Wilkes-Barre.

Thus is ended litigation that has occupied the courts from time to time for twenty seven years.

Benton.

Our ice men are again disappointed by the present thaw. What is the matter with Bloomsburg starting an ice machine? It is quite probable, unless the weather changes, that the surrounding towns could be supplied in this manner if the ice could be manufactured and sold at a moderate price.

Dr. T. C. McHenry met with quite an accident last Thursday, which might have proved more serious. While driving to a sleigh, one of the single trees broke and frightened the team. The sleigh was overturned and the team ran away. Luckily neither the doctor or horses were injured but for once Doc was "badly left."

Rev. S. P. Boone is holding protracted meeting at this place and meeting with marked success.

Dr. I. L. Edwards lost a valuable horse last week. It was kicked by another horse and so badly injured that it was an act of mercy to shoot it and end its sufferings.

We were glad to see Mrs. Jack Derr arrive in Benton last Monday from Bloomsburg, where she had passed through a very painful surgical ordeal. The people here were all anxious and glad to see her on foot so soon.

In regards to our Borough it has been a great doubt in our mind whether our friendly "Correspondent of the Sentinel" is a tax payer.

Our enterprising men and heaviest taxpayers were opposed to the borough for the simple reason that such incorporation was entirely inadequate for the present needs of our little village. Our town is in a prosperous, thriving condition, being rapidly built up by an industrious, working class of people. If we have the welfare of our town and not the personal interests at stake, it is our duty as citizens, to throw out all possible inducements to that class of people who are seeking homes. We cannot do this by incorporation; by supporting a lot of unnecessary officers; and levying heavy taxes to pay them.

There is plenty of room for enterprise and improvement without a charter, if we wish to do so. There has already been enough money spent in the application and remonstrance for said charter, to build our side walks, which are the much needed thing and great hobby. Our active business men and the laboring class do not want a borough. So long as business is not retarded by surrounding circumstances and the only thing inevitable for Society and our local politicians is to draw on rubber boots to wade the mud or "Wait till the Clouds roll by."

MILLVILLE INSTITUTE.

Millville Teachers' Institute was called to order at 10 a m., with music and devotional exercises conducted by J. S. Grimes.

H. W. Eves and Sadie Masters were appointed secretaries.

Recitation, "Little by Little," Herbert Henrie.

Concert recitation by little boys, Boyd Neyhart, Riland Kester, Frank Lyons.

Song by Mattie Eves.

Address, "Character Building," J. S. Grimes. He spoke of the importance of a good character as a foundation for future success. Be truthful, persevering and punctual. Pupils who are slovenly in school willbe so in after life. Be in earnest. Pay more attention to moral culture. We learn by habit; see that the habits of the pupils are right. What a man says and does is measured by his character.

Address, "Loyalty." by H. W. Eves, who spoke of loyality to the home, to the school, State and Nation. Of a lack of colabor on the part of teachers and parents.

"Moral Culture," Boyd Trescott. He spoke of moral culture beginning at home. Keep children away from the influence of the street. Whatever we make the home, so will be the nation. Keep the home right; give the children books and games.

Remarks on the addresses, by Chandlee Eves, E. J. Bowman, and J. S. Grimes.

Adjourned until 2 p. m.

Institute was called to order at 2 p. m.

Essay, "The Office of the School," Julia C. Loos. This was a very practical and excellent paper. The essayist spoke of manual training in the common schools and the development of the mind according to certain principles.

"Encouragement for Young Teachers." F. M. Eves. If you wish your pupils to produce a glorious work train them to live in an atmosphere of grand ideas. Do not grope too much after new methods, but help each mind to find its own method of growth.

Recitation, 'Boys Wanted,' Markley Fortner.

'How to Secure and Maintain the attention of the Class,' Ada Ringler, followed by a lengthy and able address by E. J. Bowman of Berwick, subject, 'Impressions we make,' referring to ancient and modern times. Our space is too limited to do justice to the address.

Recitation, 'A Little Boy's Trouble,' Alvin Little.

Dialogue, 'The Sick Doll', Bernice Eves, Mattie Eves, and Ralph Kisner.

Recitation, by Mell Heacock.

Address, by Hon. Henry Houck, who spoke in his usual happy style on the inspiration of music.

Recitation by Grace Parker, 'Hunting Eggs.'

Adjourned until 8 p. m.

Institute convened at 8 p. m. After music by the choir the entire evening session was occupied by Hon. Henry Houck with his humorous lecture, "The Old and the New.' The lecture revived many memories to the veterans of old time school-days when the school-master was abroad in the land.

The sessions were all attended by large and interested audiences.

Excellent music was furnished at intervals throughout the day and evening by the Millville choir.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle Free, that they may try it before purchasing. The Large Bottles are 50c and $1 00. We certainly would advise a trial. JENKS' DREAM.

Jenks had a queer dream the other night. He thought he saw a prize-fighters' ring, and in the middle of it stood a doughty little champion who met and deliberately knocked over, one by one, a score or more of big, burly-looking fellows, as they advanced to the attack. Giants as they were in size, the valiant pigmy proved more than a match for them. It was all so funny that Jenks woke up laughing. He accounts for the dream by the fact that he had just come to the conclusion, after trying nearly every big, drastic pill on the market, that Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets, or tiny Sugar-coated Granules, easily "knock out" and beat all the big pills hollow! They are the original and only genuine Little Liver Pills.

Beware of Imitations, which contain Poisonous Minerals. Always ask for Dr. Pierce's Pellets, which are Little Sugar-coated Pills, or Anti-bilious Granules. One a Dose.

SICK HEADACHE,

Bilious Headache, Dizziness, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the stomach and bowels, are promptly relieved and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. They are gently laxative, or strongly cathartic, according to size of dose. Smallest, Cheapest, Easiest to take. 25 cents a vial, by druggists.

A Lilliputian Railroad.

NINE MILES OF TEN-INCH GAUGE IN MASSACHUSETTS CROSSING ELEVEN STREAMS.

A wonderful railroad is the one which connects the towns of Bedford and Bellevue, Mass. It is nine miles in length, and is probably as unique as any on the globe. The distance is not so astonishing, except when the gauge of ten inches is considered.

In the short distance traversed by the pigmy it crosses eleven streams, with bridges from five to thirty-five feet in height. The rails weigh but twenty pounds to the yard, about the size of those used in the mines of Missouri and Illinois. The cars and engines are constructed so as to be very near the ground, insuring greater safety. The cars are provided with single seats on each side of the aisle.

The car itself weighs but four tons, the weight of an ordinary car being twenty to twenty-six tons. The engine without the tender, weighs seven tons and runs with two passenger or freight cars at the rate of twenty miles an hour. There is a smaller rail road than this in the United States—the one in Bucks county, Pa., but it is only keptas an expensive toy by a rich farmer, who has made a fortune out of oil.—From the Albany Argus.

When the hive gets overcrowded, all loyalty to the queen on the part of the workers is at an end. It is suddenly understood all through the hive that she "must go" and take with her a portion of the colony, composed of those which are willing to adhere to her.

A Man's Idea of Home Comfort.

A man wants some one place in home that he can call his very own, some portion of the house where his will is law, where no conflict of authority can arise. This not altogether for the purpose of securing solitude, for his family is usually most welcome there, but the need for it springs from the desire for that sense of proprietorship which is his habit abroad, and from the wish to be able to do precisely as he pleases in at least a corner of his own house. Here should be the comforts that a man devises for himself, the lounging chairs, the desk and library, his smoking materials with license to use them. Here he should be absolutely at his ease, troubled by no fear of "mussing things," no need to thread his way anxiously through a maze of furniture and various decorative obstructions, trembling lest something should be over-turned and broken, and there should be the seat of that admired disorder to which he only has the clue. His books and papers should be left as he leaves them, though to the orderly female eye they may seem to lie in hopeless confusion. His desk may be littered with piles of books, magazines, letters, manuscripts, everything that can possibly find a place there but if a woman wishes to secure to a man one of his most cherished home comforts, she will let that one laesked. — PERCY VERE, in March Ladies' Home Journal.

A New Lease of Life.

The aged and weak have declared after using Speer's Port Wines that they felt as though they had a new lease of life by having their system renovated by this pure strengthening wine made by Alfred Speer, of Passaic, N. J The iron in the soil in which the wine grows gives the blood making qualities to the wine. For sale by druggists.

J. W. Clark, of Tacoma, Washington says that fruit in that locality is simply prodigious. He has seen plums, seven of which will fill a quart can, and has a currant bush twelve feet high in his back yard, from which he picks the fruit with the aid of a step ladder.

RHEUMATISM

For More than Twenty-five Years.—A Complete Recovery.—The Means Used.

I had Inflammatory Rheumatism. For nearly a year I had to be fed and turned in bed. I could find no relief. My stomach was ruined and cut to pieces with powerful medicines taken to effect a cure so that I was compelled to live on bread and water. I suffered for twenty-five years in this way. I was induced to try Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, made at Rondout, N. Y., and thanks to this medicine. Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is my best friend. With it I am enabled to enjoy a good night's rest. Also food, such as meat and pastry, which I have been deprived of for years, showing that the Favorite Remedy has no equal for the cure of Indigestion and Dyspepsia as well. If any should doubt this statement I will send the ready proof at once.—Garrett Lansing, Troy, N. Y.

It is my pleasure and absolute duty toward those who are struggling for very life against the deadly to add my testimony to the already weighty evidence of the wonderful efficacy of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. My wife was a hopeless case, abandoned by the physicians. Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy was resorted to; not because any hope was placed in it, but because nothing else remained. All means and medicines had been tested without avail. The effect was little short of a miracle. At the second bottle she had received strength, and continuing the treatment has fully recovered.—Jay Sweet, Albany, N. Y.
